1. Policy

a. MILPERSMAN 1626-030 and 1640-060 through 1640-100 state members who are confined for 31 days or more will normally be returned to their previous duty station, and members confined while en route to a new duty station will be reassigned to another comparable duty assignment. Occasionally there will be circumstances in which the return of a released prisoner would not be in the best interest of the command or the individual.

b. In these cases commanding officers (COs) should, at the time of confinement, submit a message to Navy Personnel Command (NAVPERSCOM) (applicable detailer) requesting the member not be returned to the command. NAVPERSCOM will institute action for reassignment of the member to another comparable duty assignment. The message shall be submitted per the below guidelines:

(1) For rated/designated members the message shall be sent to NAVPERSCOM (applicable detailer).

(2) For non-rated/non-designated members the message shall be sent to NAVPERSCOM, Enlisted Personnel Readiness and Support Branch (PERS-4013C).

(3) The activity where the brig is located and the local discipline/pass office which serves the brig must be information addressees to allow for proper submission of the availability report.

(4) The message must state the date the member was confined or transferred temporary duty (TEM DU) for confinement and the reason why the member should not be returned to the command, e.g., loss of security clearance, loss of Navy Enlisted Classification (NEC) qualification, morale, and/or member's return would cause high security risk of member's well-being.

2. Type of Transfers. Members transferred to a Naval Consolidated Brig (NAVCONBRIG) are divided into the following two separate types of transfers:

a. Members being transferred for 30 days or less, who are assigned under temporary additional duty (TAD) orders.

b. Members who are assigned for 31 days or more who are assigned under TEMDU orders.

3. Members pending Punitive Discharge. Chief of Naval Personnel (CHNAVPERS) may suspend a punitive discharge of members confined in NAVCONBRIGs.

a. The CO of a NAVCONBRIG will request reassignment of such member to a duty station other than the member's duty station at the time of court-martial.

b. If applicable, a reassignment request by the brig will address loss of security clearance, loss of NEC qualifications, and change in rate.
