Reference	(a) DoD Instruction 1315.18 of 12 January 2005
------------------	--

1. General Information

a. Undersea surveillance (UNDERSEASURV) detachments support the theater anti-submarine warfare commander; Commander, Undersea Surveillance (COMUNDERSEASURV), United States defense attaché offices, and other national agencies in support of theater and national mission requirements. These billets support the anti-submarine warfare command and tactical forces by detecting, classifying, tracking, and providing timely reporting of information on submarines; gathering long term oceanographic and undersea geological information.

b. UNDERSEASURV detachments are located in Naples, Italy and Oslo, Norway.

2. Tour Lengths. Assignments to UNDERSEASURV detachments in Italy and Norway are per reference (a).

3. Eligibility Requirements. The following criteria must be met to qualify for UNDERSEASURV detachment duty:

a. UNDERSEASURV Detachment Italy:

(1) Minimum of one successful integrated undersea surveillance (IUSS) naval ocean processing facility tour;

(2) Attained IUSS qualification as tactical watch officer and qualification as IUSS watch supervisor;

(3) Hold Navy enlisted classification code 0507;

(4) Complete a Top Secret personal security investigation with eligibility for sensitive compartmented information and special access programs. The Service member may not be eligible for assignment if married to a foreign national or if the family member(s) of the spouse are foreign nationals;

(5) Applicants will be interviewed and approved by COMUNDERSEASURV, Intelligence Directorate (N2); and

(6) Must be suitable for multiple daily liaisons with senior (O5 and above) Commander, Sixth Fleet staff members.

b. UNDERSEASURV Detachment Norway:

(1) Minimum of one successful IUSS naval ocean processing facility tour;

(2) Complete a Top Secret personal security investigation with eligibility for sensitive compartmented information and special access programs. The Service member may not be eligible for assignment if married to a foreign national or if the family member(s) of the spouse are foreign nationals;

(3) Applicants will be interviewed and approved by COMUNDERSEASURV (N2); and

(4) Must be suitable for multiple daily liaisons with senior embassy staff and members of a host Government.

4. Submission of Requests

a. Requests for assignment to UNDERSEASURV detachment billets will be submitted via Career Management System Interactive Detailing. Navy Personnel Command, Combat Systems Assignments Branch (PERS-406) will select the member as "pending suitable screening" and nominate the member to COMUNDERSEASURV (N2) to begin the screening process. The member's orders to the detachment will be released once the Service member is screened "suitable".
